

DAI Validation and Monitoring

The DAI has undergone an initial reliability and validity study in early 2008 and has been externally validated twice since then. Both studies have contributed to the overall improvement of the tool.

10% marked as a baseline for recidivism rate within 60 days and has been used since implementation of the DAI since September 2008

Jefferson Parish Detention Assessment Instrument (DAI): Releases
% of Youth Rearrested for a New Delinquent Offense

